

GAiN-Z

Gen-Z DIGITAL MISSION SUMMIT

P O L A N D 2 0 2 6

Guest Rooms in the Palace

With private bathroom

Accommodation preview.

Polish College of Theology and Humanities Campus

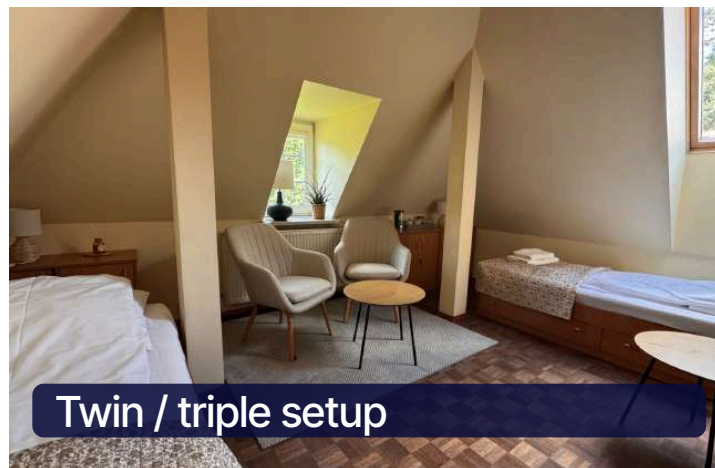

WYŻSZA SZKOŁA
TEOLOGICZNO—
HUMANISTYCZNA

Palace rooms: warm, practical, shared

A quick look at the guest rooms prepared for conference participants.

Key information

- The campus does not offer single guest rooms.
- Rooms in the Palace are shared and assigned according to availability.
- Bedding and towels are prepared in the rooms.

Room example: bright attic guest room

Large windows, single beds, a small lounge area and storage space.

Main room view

Mini fridge / microwave area

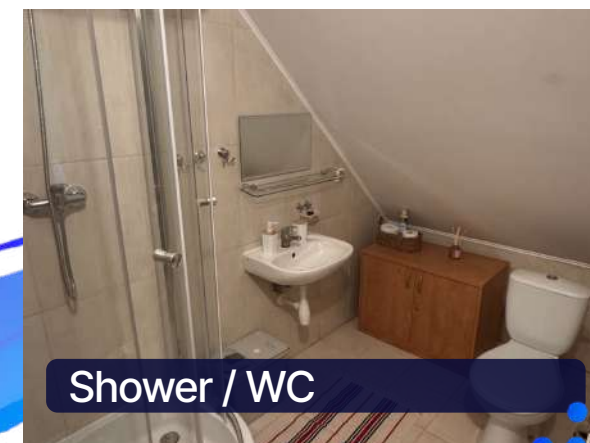

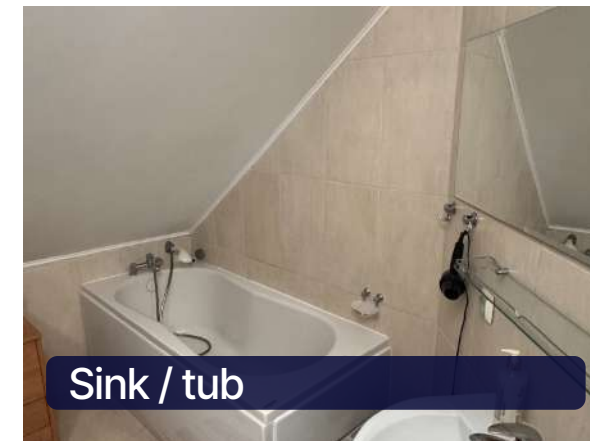

Beds and seating

Good for small groups
Shared room layout with a comfortable sitting corner.

Private bathrooms in the Palace

Bathroom photos show examples connected with the Palace rooms.

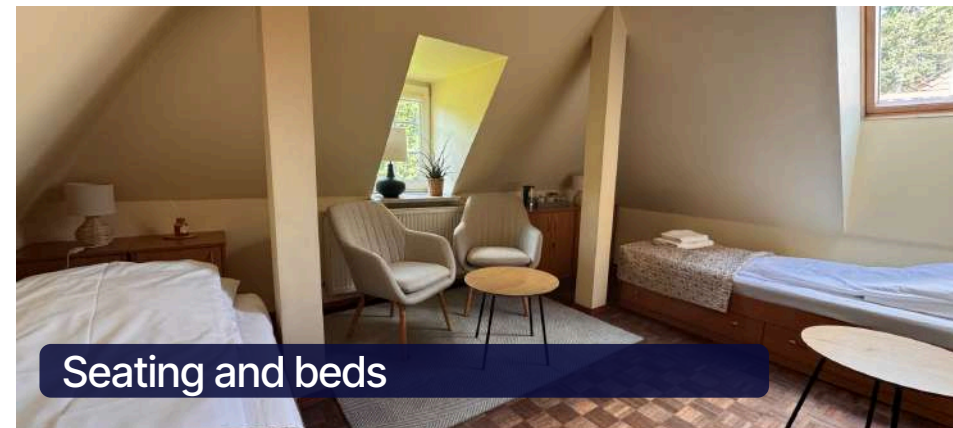

Room example: larger shared room

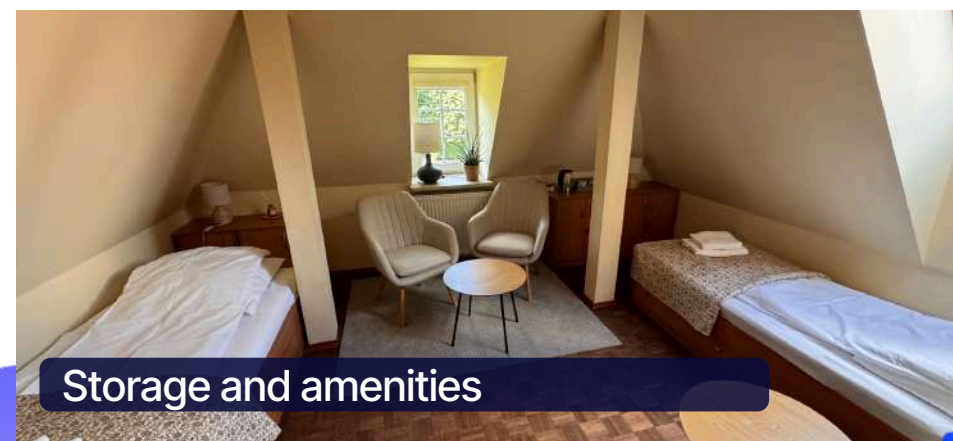

More space for a group, with single beds, lounge chairs and tea/coffee area.

Wide room overview

Seating and beds

Storage and amenities

Room example: simple twin room

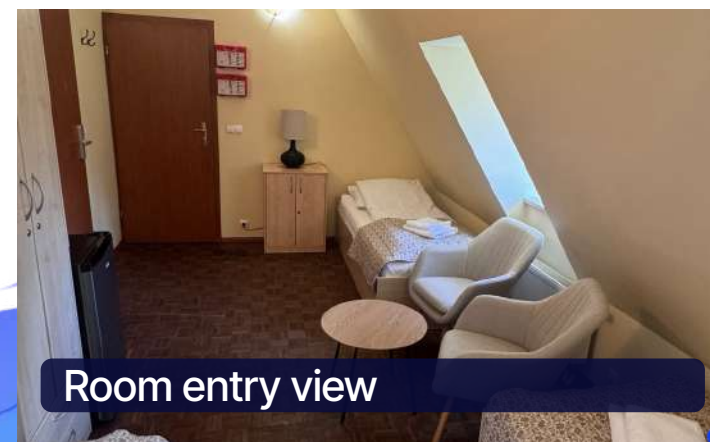

Clean, functional accommodation with prepared bedding and towels.

Twin room with skylight

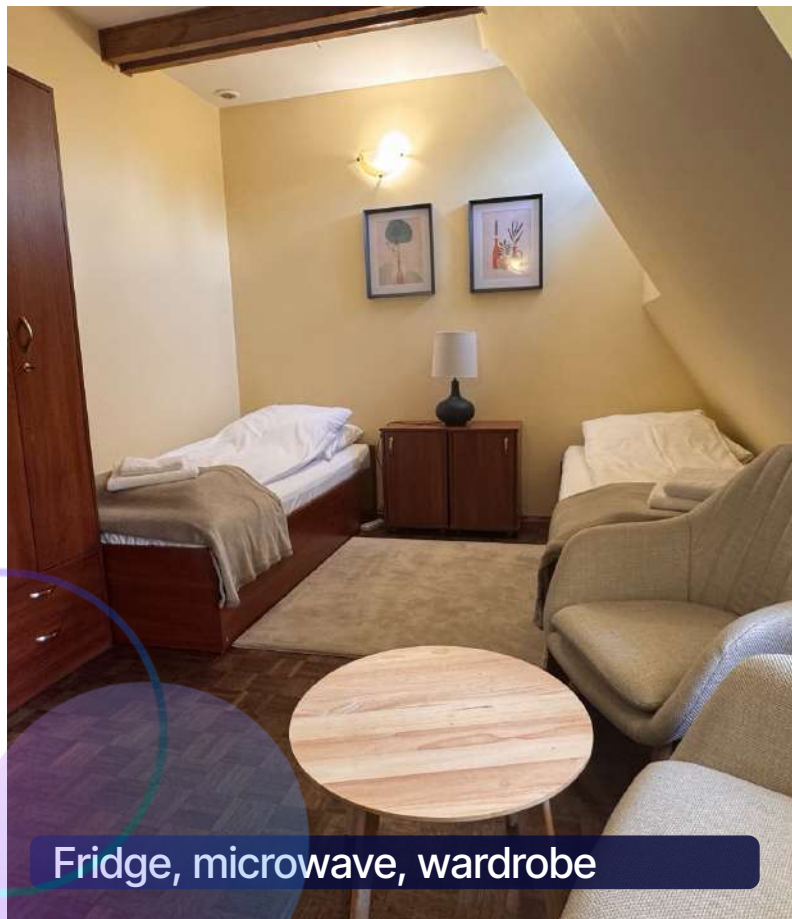

Two single beds

Room entry view

Practical comforts for the weekend

The rooms are simple, but designed to support a focused conference stay.

Included / visible in rooms

- Single beds
- Bedding and towels
- Seating area
- Wardrobe / storage
- Fridge, kettle or microwave in selected rooms
- Private bathroom access for Palace rooms

Before you submit your registration

Please let us know:

- how many people are in your group
- who you would like to share a room with
- any important room preferences

No single guest rooms are available on campus.

Room assignments will be made according to availability.

